

Evidence	Date	Description	Characteristic of Gas Plant Waste?	Rule out Gas Plant Waste?
Constituents of Concern Table ES-1	December 2007	List of chemicals associated with the Ameren gas plant site from Ameren's Comprehensive Site Investigation Report	YES	NO
"Report on Contamination of the Boneyard in Champaign by Gas House Wastes" by Ralph Hilscher in 1915	1915	Report prepared after a complaint was filed with the State Rivers & Lakes Commission regarding Boneyard Contamination	YES	NO
"Existing Conditions Report" by Environmental Engineering and Contracting, Inc.	June 7, 2010	Assesses the environmental documentation up to the date of the report and provides recommendations based on research conducted by EEC.	YES	NO
CCHCC Pipe Sampling Event	November 23, 2010	Samples were taken from the pipe outlet and came back positive for BTEX and PaHs over IL EPA safety levels	YES	NO
EEC's Pipe Sampling Event	February 7, 2011	Professional sampling crew collected samples from the outlet of the pipe. Results again showed very high levels of PaHs over IL EPA safety limits.	YES	NO
IL EPA's Pipe sampling event #1	February 15, 2011	Samples collected from the bank of the Boneyard Creek. Showed high levels of PaHs above safety levels of the IL EPA.	YES	NO
IL EPA's Pipe sampling event #2	April 11, 2011	Samples collected from a core taken out of the pipe outlet. Showed high levels of PaHs above safety levels of the IL EPA.	YES	NO
City Pipe Sampling Event	June 30, 2011	Sample taken from material inside of excavated pipe 30 feet from the bank of the Boneyard Creek.	YES	NO
Foth Infrastructure & Environment, LLC Assessment	August 5, 2011	Foth reviewed the testing data and prepared an assessment. The assessment showed that the waste in the pipe is petroleum-based.	YES	NO