

Community Meeting on National Health Reform

Guidelines for Participation

Thank you for attending this Community Meeting on National Health Reform. We appreciate your interest in the issue, and in order to have a successful meeting, we have prepared some general guidelines for participation at this event.

General Guidelines for the Meeting:

- Be courteous and respectful at all times
- Keep voices and noise down during presentations so your neighbors can hear; turn off cell phones
- Please hold your questions until the Question & Answer session
- Do not interrupt the speakers

Guidelines for the Question & Answer Session:

- This time is dedicated solely to asking questions and having speakers respond to questions
- Please limit your question to 1 to 2 minutes at the most
- Because of time constraints, please refrain from making statements, giving testimonial, or commentary
- Please do not interrupt speakers or someone asking a question
- If you prefer to write down your question and have it read by the moderator, a notecard is provided. You can also use the notecard to jot down your question and then read from it when you're ready to ask your question.

Thank you for your participation and observance of these guidelines.

Community Meeting on National Health Reform

Guidelines for Participation

Thank you for attending this Community Meeting on National Health Reform. We appreciate your interest in the issue, and in order to have a successful meeting, we have prepared some general guidelines for participation at this event.

General Guidelines for the Meeting:

- Be courteous and respectful at all times
- Keep voices and noise down during presentations so your neighbors can hear; turn off cell phones
- Please hold your questions until the Question & Answer session
- Do not interrupt the speakers

Guidelines for the Question & Answer Session:

- This time is dedicated solely to asking questions and having speakers respond to questions
- Please limit your question to 1 to 2 minutes at the most
- Because of time constraints, please refrain from making statements, giving testimonial, or commentary
- Please do not interrupt speakers or someone asking a question
- If you prefer to write down your question and have it read by the moderator, a notecard is provided. You can also use the notecard to jot down your question and then read from it when you're ready to ask your question.

Thank you for your participation and observance of these guidelines.