Champaign Public Library

200 West Green Street, Champaign

Join Champaign County Health Care Consumers for a Community Meeting on National Health Reform to learn what the new health reform law will mean for you.

At the meeting we will discuss:

- What provisions of health reform take effect this year
- What health reform means to you if you are currently insured
- What health reform means to you if you are currently uninsured
- What health reform means to you if you have Medicare
- What health reform means to you if you are a small business or non-profit employer or employee
- Local resources and programs for free and affordable health care
- Health reform implementation and the need for advocacy

Participants will also have the opportunity to ask questions at the meeting.
