

Support CCHCC through Community Shares of Illinois

Did you know there is an easy, hassle free way of donating to CCHCC through most workplaces? You can donate to CCHCC through payroll deduction at most public employers (University of Illinois, Parkland College, local schools, city, county, state, and federal governments) and several private employers throughout the area.

CCHCC is a member of Community Shares of Illinois, and at workplaces throughout the area Community Shares and its member organizations will be listed in charitable fund drive booklets that are distributed to workers. All a worker needs to do is complete the pledge card provided by the employer and the donation will be automatically deducted from the paycheck. Look for CCHCC's name under Community Shares of Illinois.
